SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE WILL ONCE AGAIN HOST A PROJECT LITERACY UNITED STATES (P.L.U.S.) WORKSHOP. THE WORKSHOP WILL BE WEDNESDAY, Sept. 7, FROM 6-9 P.M. AND THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, FROM 7-9 P.M. IN THE READING LAB OF THE JUNIOR COLLEGE. The workshop is designed to train volunteer tutors and is held in cooperation with the Tuscaloosa County Board of Education.

SEPTEMBER 8 IS INTERNATIONAL LITERACY DAY! Please treat yourself to at least thirty minutes of reading for pleasure.

COSMETOLOGY COURSE TO BE OFFERED

A NEW, ADVANCED COSMETOLOGY COURSE WILL BE OFFERED TO BEAUTY SALON OWNERS OF THIS AREA, ACCORDING TO PEGGY SEXTON, CHAIRMAN OF THE COSMETOLOGY DEPARTMENT AT SHELTON.

The three-day course, "Specializations, Nails, Hands and Feet," will be taught in the new cosmetology building at the Technical Division of the college, September 11-13, from 8 a.m. - 3 p.m.

According to Sexton, "the seminar is designed for people who own the salons and are interested in learning the latest techniques in salon care."

"The curriculum as well as the entire program is something new to the state," she said. "I'm not aware of any advanced courses of this nature being taught at any of the other technical colleges. Our cosmetology faculty wrote and designed the entire curriculum."

Shelton's cosmetology program, one of the largest in the state, has recently moved into its new home. With the new building, the college will be able to offer more advanced courses to salon owners in Alabama as well as the more traditional cosmetology courses.
